

VERY IMPORTANT FOR TRANSNATIONAL TRANSFERS

Starting from 01.01.2007 the initiator for any transnational transfers in EURO within the European Union and the EWR states is obliged to indicate the international bank account number - IBAN - and the international bank code number - BIC - of the credit institute of the beneficiary / payee. The banks involved with payment execution can reject transnational transfers in case the IBAN and the BIC are missing, starting from 01.01.2007 onwards.
